Genoa, Nov. 19. The Murder of M. Gaffario, by his Brother, ſeems to have entail'd greater Embroils amongſt the Malecontents than was at firſt foreſeen. The Republick refuſing to give him Refuge in Calvi, upon his being ſent out of that Town he has immediately ſeized, and conducted to Priſon, whither M. Matra went with a Prieſt; and after allowing him only Time to confeſs, immediately put him to Death. An Eſtafette is arrived from St. Remo to the Government, with Notice, that a Body of near 500 Men are in Arms, with a Deſign to revenge themſelves on the Inhabitants of La Colle, for withdrawing themſelves from their Community, which occaſioned the late Rebellion at St. Remo, and the Loſs of the Privileges and Immunities hitherto enjoyed by the St. Remaſios.

Madrid, Nov. 19. Their Catholick Majeſties intend to return hither To-morrow Evening from the Eſcurial, where they have reſided above a Month. The Beginning of laſt Week died, after a long Illneſs, the Marquis de Villa Franca, Grand Maſter of the King's Houſhold: He is ſucceeded in Title and Eſtate by his eldeſt Son the Duke of Fernandina. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to confer the Employment of Grand Maſter of his Houſhold, on the Duke of Hueſcar, Captain of the Spaniſh Company of Life Guards; as alſo to give that Company of Guards to the Duke of Bannos, Commander of the Royal Regiment of Carbineers; and to appoint the Marquis of Coria, Son to the Duke of Hueſcar, to ſucceed the Duke of Bannos in the Command of the Royal Carbineers. The Marquis de St. Marſan, who has reſided at this Court for three Years, in Quality of Ambaſſador from the King of Sardinia, will ſet out in a few Days on his Return to Turin, his Succeſſor being already arrived.

Turin, Nov. 21. General Baratieri, who commanded the Spaniſh Artillery during the late War, is come hither from the Infant Duke, to thank his Sardinian Majeſty for the Attentions that were ſhewn to the Infanta Dutcheſs in her Paſſage through his Sardinian Majeſty's Dominions.

Vienna, Nov. 21. Orders are ſent to the Officers appointed to regulate the new Eſtabliſhment of the Militia in the Hereditary Countries, not to enroll any who are not five Feet three Inches high. The States of Lower Auſtria continue their Deliberations on the Demands made by her Imperial Majeſty for the Year enſuing, with ſuch Unanimity, that there is no Doubt of their being complied with. The Chamber of Finances have contracted for between 14 and 15000 Horſes to remount the Imperial Cavalry, which are to be delivered before the Month of May next.

Verſailles, Nov. 29. On Monday laſt the King arrived here with the Royal Family. Madame Victoire is quite recovered of her late Indiſpoſition, disposition, and appears again in publick. His Majesty has appointed the Marquis de Stainville to replace the Duke de Nivernois as Ambassador at Rome.

[Price, Two-Pence.]

Paris, Nov. 30. We hear the Members of the Chatelet have, after great Debates, come to a Resolution to register the King's Letters Patents for establishing the Royal Chamber.

Hague, Dec. 4. M. Steyn is appointed Keeper of the Seals, and Master of the Registers of the Fiefs of the Provinces of Holland and Westfriseland, in the Room of the late Baron Vander Duyn; and he has taken the usual Oaths, before the Assembly of their High Mightinesses, to qualify himself for those important Posts. The States General have issued an Ordonnance, dated the 28th of last Month, forbidding, under severe Penalties, the melting down or exporting any of the Silver Coin of these Provinces.

Whitehall, December 11.

The King has been pleased to present Bernard Mills, Master of Arts, to the Rectory of Hitcham, in the County of Suffolk, and Diocese of Norwich, void by the Death of Joseph Coleman, the last Incumbent.

The King has been pleased to present Thomas Heath, Master of Arts, to the Vicarage of Hellmerton, in the County of Wilts, and Diocese of Salisbury, void by the Death of Thomas Frampton, the last Incumbent.

Erratum.

In the Article from Dublin, in the second Page of last Saturday's Gazette, for, Her Grace the Dutchess of Dorset, read, His Grace, the Dutchess of Dorset, &c.

Whitehall, December 4, 1753.

Whereas a Pot-Ash House in Reading, in the County of Berks, belonging to John Davenport of the same Town, was lately set on Fire; after which an Incendiary Letter was left at the House of George Plumer, in the Words following, viz.

For Georg Plomer, Bucher roo, Redin.

Sinc you troble your hed with Devnport god dam you I will set all as you got in the same way as his is And if the Prenter put it in the papr any more will fearve him the same way if menfions teen pounds reward god dam him if he have any moar it shall go the same Way as the other did have as much as he can get together Witness our hands all three—
P.s C.d A.t
Nov.r. 18—1753.

And whereas Richard Paice and John Cutler have been, since, committed to Prison in the Borough of Reading aforesaid, on a violent Suspicion of burning and destroying the said Pot-Ash House; soon after which Commitment the following anonymous Letter, written in the same Hand Writing as the former Letter, was left at the House of Mr. Harry Austin Deane, Attorney at Law, and one of the Justices of the Peace for the said Borough, viz.

To Mr. Deane, and Plomer, and Davenport.
Damn you all if you dont directly Let Pais go and Cutler you shall all be burn't or murderd every thing as belongs to all three of you.

In order to bring to Justice the Offender or Offenders concerned in writing or sending the said Letters, or in setting the said Pot-Ash House on Fire, as aforesaid; if any one will discover the Person or Persons, who wrote, or sent, or left the said Letters, or either of them, or who set the said Pot-Ash House on Fire, as aforesaid, so as he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof, the said Mr. Deane doth hereby promise to pay to any Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery or Discoveries (except the Person who actually set the said Pot Ash House on Fire) the Reward of Twenty Pounds upon such Conviction.

Harry Austin Deane.

And, as a farther Encouragement for the discovering and bringing to Justice the said Offender, or Offenders, His Majesty is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set the said Pot-Ash House on Fire) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

General Post-Office,
November 7, 1753.

Whereas a second anonymous Letter has been sent to the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Leicester, His Majesty's Post-Master General, in the following Terms:

"My Lord, 1753.

"I don't find that you have ordred Mr. Stockdale to
"be taken down, but you give yourself the Trouble to
"advertise so much Reward, but you will find your-
"self quite mistaken, for we are true Englishmen, we
"ant French Men, nor Irish Men, so that we shall
"never discover one another, not for One Thousand,
"much more your One Hundred Pounds; so then if
"Mr. Stockdale ant taken down in a Week's Time,
"we will serve you as we said in our last Letter.
"Tuesday, October the 30th. So no more.

P. S. "You need not give yourself any more Trouble
"of advertizing, for we shall all stand true to
"one another, and are resolute to have him down,
"let what will happen."

This is to offer a Reward of Five Hundred Pounds to any who shall or may make Discovery of the Party or Parties concerned in Writing or Sending the above-said Letter, so that he, she or they, be convicted thereof, together with his Majesty's most Gracious Pardon for any Accomplice, who shall make Discovery of the same.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.
